An Assault Upon The Citadel Of Keynesianism

(Christian Economics) By WILLIAM H. PETERSON Professor of Economics, New York University

Modern economics, as practiced in Washington and taught in the colleges, is still well within the domain bequeathed by Lord Keynes, and many a Keynesian principle has engrained itself into national thinking. As John Exter, senior vice president of the First National City Bank of New York pointed out in a recent speech. if you asked 100 people at ran-of easy money and low interest rates always stimulate the economy, and whether tight money and high interest rates depress it, they would all say yes. If you then asked why Japan and the Continental European countries, all of whom have had tight money, are while Britain, Canada, and the United States, all of whom have ployment and slugg sh economes they would be puzzled to be that Keynesian easy money advocates overlook the fact that Keynes implicitly assumed a rather closed economy an almost autarkic state with little trade and financial relaions with the outside world. But Britain, Canada, and now the United States are anything but by the fact that all three countries are experiencing balance the interdependent West of toer currency countries and merecountries Thus, perennial Keynes an easy money can have omy - the exact opposite of

The poor man's reminders, numbering half a dozen in this connection, have totally been ignored by the said Barra Sahib! To expect justice or fair dealings from these officers is like asking for the moon. And when such cases of high - handedness and injustices are brought to the notice of the ministers concerned, they too take no action. This encourages the corrupt officers.

Mr. Jai Prakash Narain once observed - "There is no democracy today. The Congress Government have established a reign of terror in the country by promulgating acts and ordinances blacker than the black acts of the British Regime."

Victimization of Innocents Mr. H. V. lyenger, Secretary of Foreign Affairs in the British Regime affirmed . . "The British forged a remarkable administrative machinery in the country. The services of the country were well organized and well disciplined and did their job within the limits set by political policy, conscientiously and competently. Political changes took place since 1919, but irrespective of these the British saw that integrity of the service was well maintained. One could speak frankly through official files and except in rare cases, there was no victimization.

Can Mr. Nehru boast of or call for a similar administrative machinery? In fact, the Congress since independence has reversed the entire structure for the worst. Victimization of innocent employees has become the order of the day. An officer who wishes to bring in his own favourite starts finding fault with one of his subordinates, and when he gets an opportunity, he dismisses him on flimsy excuses and appoints his own man. Even the Employment Exchange Officers are not free from corrupt

And unless Mr. Nehru sees the facts in their true perspective, the tottering structure of Congress administration would collapse sooner or later. The harping on past glories that Congress can alone deliver the goods would not sustain it. To be more precise, the prophecy - "Thou was weighed in a balance and was found wanting," should come true.

Soon after Independence Mr. Jailor of Lucknow Jail in an Nehru assured us to hang a employing effects of high and hauled him in the court. This and groups in a democratic country like India. Unfortunately there are still young people who are not suf ficiently critical about life in the West." There was also an article that the publication of a Bulgarian novel in French had been of material assistance to the French Communist Party. We therefore had some quite lively discussions as to whether we are expected to regard our visit as a part of the class struggle and whether we were expected to assist in the publication of Bulgarian books in or-

They lacked the elaborate procedure of British justice and it was astonishing to us to find Judges taking a prime part in examination and cross examination of witnesses. Open Every Nite 'til 8:30 WHY IS A 2-PANT SUIT SUCH A GOOD BUY? Vice Presidents buy two trouser suits. Doctors and lawyers buy two trouser suits. It's not just a matter of value, it's a matter of appearance. A second pair of trousers absorbs the wrinkles and wear, lets you keep a pair in well-pressed readiness—for your trousers get much AND WHY IS BAIN'S THE BEST PLACE TO BUY IT? Because Bain's is the home of the two-pant suit in Colorado Springs. Bain's carries the most comprehensive collection of two-trouser suits you'll find in any store in the region. A collection that incorporates every important style . . . every fabric from long-wearing twills to luxurious, imported mohair and wools. And knowing Bain's, you know you'll find them in an exceptionally wide range of sizes: from 36 to 46; and in proportions for regulars, shorts and three putton modes pain front pants, the new ofter brighter Spring shades designed for wear WARRENSHIRE 2-Pant Suits... Fulbright Sees More Debate on Foreign Aid

"I do not think this is damagng to the administration at all" e added. "I think this is helpul to the administration in the sense that it brings these things out into the open" for public speech because in the New dential primary, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater and New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller had named foreign policy as a 1964 campaign issue. The GOP candidates had only issued "a collection of generalities." he said. Fulbright said he has not heard from Johnson since the speech nor did he consult the administration beforehand.

Goldwater charged in a Caliornia campaign address Tuesday that Fulbright was voicing the basic foreign policy assumptions of the Johnson administra-

Fulbright's proposals. Goldwater declared, "are dangerousy weakening the posture of this nation in a world which is still involved in a cold war.

College Says Students Are Too Successful

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)-Miami-Dade Junior College has a "dropout" problem.

More than 1,500 students have enrolled in the college's data processing program, started in 1960. Only one has completed the two-year course. It's not a question of flunking.

The students are too successful "They take five or six of the courses and then are grabbed off by industry." said President Peter Masiko Jr. today.
